XI. Ride to Remember update:

1. Tim and Barry are working on the route. Tentatively starting at Brazow Fire Dept. with a second stop at Riverview Fire Dept. in Mountain, then following the wolf river down to Keshena, ending the ride at the casino.
2. Tim and Barry are also working on some secondary options.
3. Everyone can start collecting prizes for the bucket raffle.
4. Slushie mentioned that he has a lead on a band possibility.

XII. Old Business:

1. An incident occurred at the tree burn that Slushie talked about. Apparently some members from a club from the east coast felt disrespected from a member of station 141, the suspected individual involved, did talk to the east coast members and made it right. The jist of the incident reminds us all to treat everyone with the utmost respect.
2. The National E-board will be addressing the issue of bringing back members who left the club in good standing

XIII. New Business:

1. Brent Besaw received his patch and is now a full patched member. Congratulations Brent!
2. Keith Katch was accepted as a new probie and received his probie cut. Welcome Keith.
3. A reminder to never share any club business on social media.
4. Roxanne is working on another fundraiser, she is calling it, Red White and Brews. More details will be made available at upcoming meetings.
5. Due to John stepping down as the ride chairman. Brent Besaw volunteered to take over the ride chairman's position.
6. All members present at the meeting voted on the proposed bylaw changes. The updated bylaws, as approved by Station 141 at the February meeting, can be seen in the second attachment. Thank you John Lawler for putting that together with the correct verbiage.

XIV. 50/50 Raffle winner: Roxanne.
